Chef Peter's
December 2, 2025

The meeting was called to order by President Beth Amos. Other Board members present were First Vice-President Jeri Karpinski, Second-Vice President Sandy Elliott, Secretary Mary Schmidt and Treasurer Jennie Stephens.

Beth welcomed the 23 members in attendance. There were no new members.

Beth called for a motion to approve the minutes of the last meeting: March 25, 2025. These minutes were sent via email to all members. Jean Lambert made the motion which was seconded by Sue Windemuller. The motion was approved.

Jennie reported on the treasury. Bank balance $4161.75, Petty Cash $217, Hole-in-One $375 and 50/50 $519

Old Business: No old business

New Business:

Beth called for Phyllis DuMond to stand. Phyllis was presented with a going away gift of metal sculpture and sweater. Phyllis was recognized for the diligent and outstanding club work she has done for many years as both Handicap and Membership Chairwoman.

Hole Four's Drop zone was addressed. If you use this drop zone, you will be hitting three. If Jason intends to keep the red tees near the men's tees, Beth will ask him to make a permanent drop zone.

Mary Graham clarified that the red tees' handicap is used for KP's whether you are using the red or silver tees.

Our yearly Get-Away at Luke's will not be possible without Phyllis. Renee Hollenback made a motion to scrap the Get-Away. Sue Windemuller seconded it; the motion passed.

Jeri passed the sign up sheet for the potluck Christmas party December 11, at NC2 (noon to 3:00 pm). The $20 gift exchange will be as usual: three passes and it's yours.

Betty reported on the President's Cup Tournament on January 13 and 20. This net tournament will consist of two rounds, will be scored net handicap, and partners handicap must be within 10 strokes of each other. Silver tee play will be allowed.

Sandy, our new Handicap Chairwoman, requested play of the day scores be posted the day of play or the day following play.

Bonnie Eagleton reminded all that she will not reserve any tee times next Thursday because of the Christmas party.

Mary Graham reported some of our members are not getting her Golf Genius emails. She suggested that those members check their spam. She also explained that if you respond that you will be playing and you need to cancel, you just return to the original email and change your reply.

Renee called for a standing ovation for Phyllis. Then, Phyllis described how she will miss all of us, how she will keep in touch with us, how she will be available for questions and how she will be looking for another group of golf "Chickadees". She also told us about her new home and how close she will be to her family. Tears!

Gloria won the 50/50 of $29.

Beth asked if there was anything else. There being nothing, Bonnie made a motion to adjourn, Jeri seconded it. The motion passed.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Schmidt, Secretary
